

Dear PhD and Doctoral Students,

train your presentation skills at Doktorandensymposium 2019 – the PhD and doctoral symposium. You will learn amazing facts from different fields of biomedical science and meet interesting young scientists. Also, there will be a prize to win for the best presentation and poster as well as a party with DJ, food and cocktails. All for free!

Additionally, you'll get ATF and DRS credits!

The deadline for registration is 15.06.2019 and 01.07.2019 for abstract submission
